

Classes that are scheduled to meet synchronously online at specific days/times will take attendance for the same way that is done for seated, in-person (traditional) classes by taking roll in the class meeting